Join the Covington Rotary Club for food and fellowship at the annual Feeding the Needy luncheon with local sportscaster Jim Henderson, the legendary "voice of the Saints."

While you will be entertained by Henderson's colorful tales and enjoy a delicious lunch catered by The Lakehouse, the best part of the event is that it serves to make the upcoming holiday season a little brighter for hundreds of area families in need.

Ticket sales support the Covington Rotary Club's Feeding the Needy initiative, which is celebrating its 16th year. With your support, more than 1,500 families benefit from this program each year. On Christmas morning, club members and countless other volunteers prepare and deliver 14-16 lb. cooked turkeys with all the trimmings ready to warm and serve.

Unable to join us at the luncheon? We will miss seeing you there, but hope you'll still be a part of our event by using this page to make a donation instead.
